

WHAT IS SO RARE AS A DAY IN JUNE WHEN PHILS OR ATHLETICS WIN?

HAP FELSCH WOULD SUMMER WITH MACK

Chicago Clubber has Clouted Out Two Homers, Two Singles and Has Snared Eleven Flies in Two Days

FOUR HITS BEAT PHILS

By EDWIN J. POLLOCK
HAPPY FELSCH doesn't care how long the White Sox stay at Shibe Park. In fact, the Comiskey clubber is in favor of summering at the Mack Villa and being entertained by Athletic pitchers.

When Mr. Gleason and his Chicago clubbers began their afternoon visits at Twenty-first street and Lehigh avenue Felsch carried along a slim average of .255. In two games he added four hits out of nine tries for a Philadelphia percentage of .444.

Listed among the quartet of smashes that have been lifted off Happy's bat are a pair of singles and a brace of home runs. It's not very often that even an extra-base slugger like Felsch connects for home runs on successive playing days, but that is what the Gleason outfielder has done here. On Saturday he lifted the ball into the left-field bleachers and yesterday he repeated.

Also Hap has been having pleasant times in center pulling down whiffs from Mack bats. In two games he has snared eleven put-outs, seven of them being made yesterday.

With a batting average of .444 and a clean percentage afield out of eleven chances, it is small wonder that Felsch would like to select Mr. Shibe's park for summering. Rather Poor, Eddie COLLINS is the only member of the White Sox who has not prospered so far as a result of the visit to the Shibe stadium. Edward Trowbridge has had only one hit out of eight times against Mack hurlers, but he still is King Secon's baseman, himself, with the members of the Gleason gang, and the deliveries of the Joe Harry-Seibold and Thompson. Joe Jackson led the assault with a homer and two singles.

It was the second straight win for the Sox over the back-sprinting A's and the fifth defeat in a row for Mack. Lefty Williams permitted only a half-dozen hits, while Seibold yielded ten. Thompson, the new southpaw from Washington, debuted for Mack in the seventh and allowed three hits in three frames.

The last time Williams faced the Mackmen he was beaten, 1-0. Tom Rogers was then flinging his first game for the A's and he held the White Sox to four hits on their native soil in Comiskey Park.

Ninth Straight Against Phils
THE Phils are going after the long-distance losing record on all fours. The Pirates handed their ninth straight defeat in Pittsburgh yesterday, 6-5, and now the Combsmen have only one more contest to lose to equal the mark set by the Dodgers. From the way they are going now it looks as if they were about to surpass Uncle Robby's record.

The Combs clan outbit the Bezdek Buccaneros three to one, but what are a few hits in the lives of our native Phils, who do most of their hitting in defeat. They cracked Babe Adams for twelve safeties for a total of nineteen bases and the Pirates were credited with only four hits for five sacks.

Three of the four hits were made off Frank Woodward in the first inning and before three Pirates were out, Combs decided it was not Woodward's day, and Male Watson was ordered to the hill. The Mule was wild and retired in favor of Eppa Rixey, who later gave way to George Smith. Combs doesn't care how many pitchers he uses.

Heavy Clouting for Naught
THE Phil wrecking crew, which has been wrecked more often than it has wrecked, swung into action in the latter part of the pastime and Adams was shelled off Hill No. 1. Claude Cooper was rushed in as relief man in the ninth and he silenced the Combs clouters.

GALAXY OF STARS TEE OFF FOR LYNEWOOD HALL CUP

Gardner and Buxton Meet This Morning at Huntingdon Valley. J. S. Dean, Young Princeton Student, Does a 'Bobby Jones,' Winning Qualifying Medal From Fine Field of Talent

By SPICK HALL
VIRTUALLY all of the crack golfers in this stretch of the woods, with a fair sprinkling from other stretches, assembled around the first tee this morning on the Huntingdon Valley Country Club course to engage in the gentle pastime of eliminating each other in the opening round of the annual tournament for the Lynewood Hall cup. Seldom have so many celebrities of the links crossed clubs for this event, and rarely has there been so much divergence of opinion on the outcome of the matches.

When a big batch of Philadelphia stars, whose habitat has long been the fairway and the green, had to be content yesterday to tune up on the second hole while young J. S. Dean, a Princeton student, led the orchestra, by virtue of his victory in the qualifying round, those who had been so certain that the cup would remain in Philadelphia county or thereabouts, began to scent a possible upset.

And the Orange and Black contender is not the only outsider who has a chance to romp away with one of our net trophies. There is W. H. Gardner, Buffalo, who always goes better in match play than he does in play for the qualifying medal. Gardner gave George Hoffman, who won the Buckwood trophy last week at Shawnee, a hard battle in the semifinal round on the up-state course, which means that, in spite of the odds, he has a fair chance of taking the cup from Pennsylvania to New York.

What May Happen in Baseball Today

Table with columns: Club, Won, Lost, P.C., Win, Loss. Rows include Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Boston, Washington, Athletics, New York, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Boston.

FAVORITES WIN IN TITLE TENNIS PLAY

Three Members of Big Four Gain Berth in Third Round of Women's Tourney

MISS BALLIN LOSES

By ROBERT T. PAUL
St. Martins, Pa., June 17.—Ole again the favorite came through in the thirty-second annual women's lawn tennis championships on the turf courts of the Philadelphia Cricket Club. Due to the new arrangement of the playing schedule, the women's and girl's singles were played this morning, leaving the afternoon open for the first round matches in the women's doubles and mixed doubles.

Three of the so-called "Big Four," Mrs. George Weightman, Miss Eleanor Goss and Miss Mary Zinderstein, gained a berth in the third round as the result of the second round matches this morning.

Miss Walsh Beaten
Mrs. George Weightman eliminated Miss Phyllis Walsh, of the Philadelphia Country Club, in a two-set match 6-2; 6-2. Miss Walsh was unable to play her usual strong net game against her opponent.

Miss Eleanor Goss, who yesterday won by default from Miss Helen Sewell, Huntingdon Valley Country Club, played her first match today. The tall New Yorker was not extended to her best extent and won from Mrs. M. B. Huff, New York Tennis Club, 6-3, 6-0.

Miss Zinderstein Wins
Miss Marion Zinderstein, of the Longwood Cricket Club, was given quite a lesson by Miss Florence A. Ballin, of the West Side Tennis Club. Miss Zinderstein took the first set rather easily, 6-1, but in the second set, Miss Ballin showed a reversal of form and carried Miss Zinderstein to fourteen well-played games before being defeated, 8-6.

WOMEN'S SINGLES
Second Round
Miss Eleanor Goss, Westside, defeated Mrs. M. B. Huff, New York Tennis Club, 6-3, 6-0.
Mrs. George W. Weightman, Longwood Cricket Club, defeated Phyllis Walsh, Philadelphia Country Club, 6-2, 6-2.
Miss Anne B. Townsend, Merion Cricket Club, defeated Miss Elizabeth Warren, Westmoreland Club, Virginia, 6-2, 6-3.
Mrs. Robert Lator, Westside, defeated Miss Marion Ber, New York Tennis Club, 6-2, 6-3.
Mrs. Gilbert Harvey, Philadelphia Cricket Club, defeated Mrs. S. S. Fullerton Weaver, Westside, by default.
Miss Anne B. Townsend, Merion Cricket Club, defeated Miss Mary Newbold, Philadelphia Cricket Club, 6-3, 6-3.
Miss Leah L. Hancock, Longwood Cricket Club, defeated Mrs. Theodore Schott, Westside, 6-2, 6-3.
Miss Marion Zinderstein, Longwood Cricket Club, defeated Miss Florence A. Ballin, Westside, 6-1, 6-6.
Miss Eleanor R. Sears, Longwood Cricket Club, defeated Mrs. I. Cabot, Longwood Cricket Club, 6-1, 6-2.

Haverford Cricketers Lose
St. Catharines, Ont., June 17.—The Haverford College yesterday in a slow match, 151 to 107.

WHAT FLASHLIGHT CAUGHT AT PHILS' PARK

Right to left—Announcer Babe O'Rourke, Frankie Donato, Johnny Dundee, Referee Lew Grimson, Manager Billy Gibson, Benny Leonard, Willie Leonard, Charley Leonard, George Engel and Commissioner John B. Smith

BITS OF BREEZY BOXING BRITTLER PICKED UP AT FISTIC ENTERTAINMENT AT PHILLIES' PARK

By JAMES S. CAROLAN
"Bust him in the nose! Let's see a regular fight for the same price!" chirped a voice in the stands as Lew Tendler and Benny Leonard exchanged greetings just before Leonard and Dundee went into action.

Gibson Wants $10,000 Side Bet for Leonard-Tendler

Billy Gibson announced at the end of the Dundee-Leonard bout that Leonard would meet Tendler, but it would be necessary for Tendler to place a $10,000 side bet and that Leonard would dictate the weight.

John Nolan was seated next to Clarence Carman, Dr. George W. Wittman, Charles Heeb, Perry Benn, Jack McKegan, Louis H. Jaffe and Spick Hall, all charter members of the Pine Street Debating Society.

Johnny Dundee was the first to enter the ring. The popular little Italian boy was given a liberal hand as he bounced through the ropes at 1:32. Leonard made his entry a minute later. He had many friends. The applause was almost deafening when Tendler entered. He needed an introduction.

John B. Smith, chairman of the New Jersey Boxing Commission, was introduced by Announcer Babe O'Rourke. The commission has done much to keep boxing clean in Jersey, went over here.

Jack Weinstein was Promoter Rains' chief aide. Diplomatic Jack was all over the place during the evening. He left the ring after early enough to be present when Leonard faced Dundee.

Better move up the wind-up; looks like rain," one ringside patron cheerfully confided to the overworked promoter, Leon Rains. Robby called out his star weather prophet, Leony (Dundee), for a consultation. "No chance for rain; everything O. K.," was the Gamin's decision. There was no change in the program.

Yankee Swartz says that Harry Pierce, his antiquated piece of fighting machinery, is ready for a consultation. This includes Leonard, Dundee and Cline.

Judge Harry Imber was seated next to Commissioner Smith. The judge, a great one place to see to find them—at the ringside. Charles Schwartz also was present. Tendler, Benny will make weight and will not take advantage of any challenger."

Phil Glassman, manager of Tendler, was much depressed when he was not allowed to tell the throng that Lew wanted to bottle his fight. "Just afraid of the greatest light weight in the world," muttered Phil. "That's what I'm afraid of, his knock 'em all cold at 133; that's it, 133."

Herman Taylor, and Doc Cutch were there. Any time a big show is on there is only one place to see to find them—at the ringside. Charles Schwartz also was present. In his party were Herman Pressman, Dave Mitchell and James Ryan.

Joe Beattie, Joe Slavin, Thomas Farrell and Felix Gorman, the Port Richmond tenor, were great Cline rooters. Gorman also was a Phils fan, and as the bout was at the Phils' Park there was no keeping him away.

Eddie Walker did more fighting during the evening than the six officials combined. Eddie was on the pass rate, and wrecked almost every holder of an Amlo Oakley. Eddie stopped the drive on the P. G. circle in a minute at Bellvue Woods. Chappo Marks assisted Walker.

The marines are always the first to fight and the first to be hit. This was evident when the word was given to do the work and rushed upon the field when the first bout went on. A stampede almost resulted in the stands when the marines deserted.

Ensign Dave Jaffe won his second lot of the season. He "crashed" in when the Navy beat the Army at baseball and he won the price of his admission ticket from Marshall Reinberger when Dundee stayed the limit.

Nam Gross and Louis Kamp saw the show from the field. Pres. Sam made overtures to Leonard and Dundee to box before the Pindiro patrons. Benny was willing and Dundee, who was bent to a box party, will linger here to attend the meeting of the Pine Street Debating Society at Hotel Huntington tonight. Pres. Sam Gross is the host.

Apparently, Kid Glenn had a hand in making the American League schedule. Anahed word to Promoter Rains that he would be here on the 16th. The Kid is a great fight fan. He and his star White Sox team were at the ringside.

William Scheider, Jake Gross and Dan Goss were the agents of Dr. G. W. Wittman. They were located in the right-field boxes.

Harry Grab's first act after leaving the ring was to rush to the stands where his wife was waiting to greet him. Many believed that the victorious Harry was going into the stands, a la George Burns. He displayed the speed of a Meredith in reaching friend wife.

James F. Dougherty, Baron of Leipersville, who was given the job as referee of the Dempsey-Willard fight, was found seated quietly in the fifth row at the ringside. Baron was uncommunicative, but he liked Leonard's work. "Benny is a miniature Jack Dempsey, and it's a pity that type of fighter," said the Leipersville king. The Baron was accompanied by Jacques Yaculian.

Frankie Maxwell and Dan Moran fought a second round in the lone preliminary. It was evident the bout was a pretentious, for Herman Hudis was seconding one of the boys.

Dave Mackay, the Newark promoter who staged the Dempsey-Pullen, Leonard-Dundee and Leonard-Ritchie bouts, was a member of Commissioner Smith's party. Promoter Mackay, who is a former six-day bike rider, agreed with Carman and Hunter that it is better to promote than to fight.

Tommy Sheeran, Billy Sheeran and

Francis Maxwell and Dan Moran fought a second round in the lone preliminary. It was evident the bout was a pretentious, for Herman Hudis was seconding one of the boys.

Bobby Reynolds, one-time feather and lightweight entertainer, was much interested. Bobby had fought both Leonard and Dundee and marveled at the work of the champion and the staying powers of the veteran Dundee. "Why, Johnny's even better now than he was five years ago," said Bobby.

Tender Annoyed When Challenge Is Refused

BALA TOURNAY TOMORROW
More Than 160 Entries in Annual Invitation Golf Play

Clarence Carman, the famous motorpaced driver, and Jimmy Hunter, the king of motor-paced drivers, witnessed the classic from the field. Both agreed that they would sooner defy death at a mile-a-minute speed on the Velodrome track in preference to stepping into the ring with Leonard.

"I don't know why Leonard won't give me a chance," mourned Lew Tendler as he rebounded his ringside seat after his unsuccessful effort to challenge Benny Leonard at the Phils' Park last night. "I think I have proved I'm deserving of one meeting. That must come for, I will prove before long that I'm entitled to the match."

The annual invitation golf tournament of the Bala Golf Club will begin tomorrow and not on Thursday, as originally announced in these columns. More than 160 players will contest on the greatest field in the history of the club. So great is the list that the fourth flight will be sent away in four-ball matches, as it would be impossible for pairs to finish.

Lockwood to Run
Former Penn Star Will Stage "Come-Back" on Cinder Path

Tendler was humiliated when I was denied the right to challenge. His face flushed and he bashfully retreated. That rebuff was more painful than a punch.

One of the added entries is Sergeant Edward Clary, of the home club, who has just returned from France.

Robb Reynolds, one-time feather and lightweight entertainer, was much interested. Bobby had fought both Leonard and Dundee and marveled at the work of the champion and the staying powers of the veteran Dundee. "Why, Johnny's even better now than he was five years ago," said Bobby.

Lockwood to Run
Former Penn Star Will Stage "Come-Back" on Cinder Path

Lockwood, who several years ago was one of the University of Pennsylvania's best sprinters, is to attempt a "come-back." Lockwood will represent the New York A. C. in open competition and will be eligible to compete for the Winged Foot in the coming senior metropolitan championships.

Frankie Fleming, the Montreal light heavyweight, who twice resisted knockouts over Leonard, was in attendance. Other ring artists present were Billings Lenzinsky, who needs Billy Miller in Toledo on July 5; Joe Tipton; Jay Smith; Joe Fox; Percy Roe and Joe Mendell.

Lockwood to Run
Former Penn Star Will Stage "Come-Back" on Cinder Path

Lockwood, who several years ago was one of the University of Pennsylvania's best sprinters, is to attempt a "come-back." Lockwood will represent the New York A. C. in open competition and will be eligible to compete for the Winged Foot in the coming senior metropolitan championships.

Sam Lewis, the former New York referee, who is now making this old hit home, was accompanied with Leonard's work. Dan Moran increased with Leonard's work.

Lockwood to Run
Former Penn Star Will Stage "Come-Back" on Cinder Path

Lockwood, who several years ago was one of the University of Pennsylvania's best sprinters, is to attempt a "come-back." Lockwood will represent the New York A. C. in open competition and will be eligible to compete for the Winged Foot in the coming senior metropolitan championships.

Yesterday Dean shot the first nine holes in 35, one under par. He came in with 41, a total of 76 for the first round, three strokes above Max Marston, whose 73 was the best score that had been made over the Huntingdon Valley course since it was changed. Dean's second was even better than his first. He went out in 37 and came in with 38, a total of 76, giving him a grand total of 151, the lowest score of the day.

Lockwood to Run
Former Penn Star Will Stage "Come-Back" on Cinder Path

Lockwood, who several years ago was one of the University of Pennsylvania's best sprinters, is to attempt a "come-back." Lockwood will represent the New York A. C. in open competition and will be eligible to compete for the Winged Foot in the coming senior metropolitan championships.

Dean's play yesterday was the big feature, not only because he made such an excellent score but because he won the medal against a field of the most representative players that has gathered for a tournament here in many moons.

Lockwood to Run
Former Penn Star Will Stage "Come-Back" on Cinder Path

Lockwood, who several years ago was one of the University of Pennsylvania's best sprinters, is to attempt a "come-back." Lockwood will represent the New York A. C. in open competition and will be eligible to compete for the Winged Foot in the coming senior metropolitan championships.

Yesterday Dean shot the first nine holes in 35, one under par. He came in with 41, a total of 76 for the first round, three strokes above Max Marston, whose 73 was the best score that had been made over the Huntingdon Valley course since it was changed. Dean's second was even better than his first. He went out in 37 and came in with 38, a total of 76, giving him a grand total of 151, the lowest score of the day.

Lockwood to Run
Former Penn Star Will Stage "Come-Back" on Cinder Path

Lockwood, who several years ago was one of the University of Pennsylvania's best sprinters, is to attempt a "come-back." Lockwood will represent the New York A. C. in open competition and will be eligible to compete for the Winged Foot in the coming senior metropolitan championships.

Yesterday Dean shot the first nine holes in 35, one under par. He came in with 41, a total of 76 for the first round, three strokes above Max Marston, whose 73 was the best score that had been made over the Huntingdon Valley course since it was changed. Dean's second was even better than his first. He went out in 37 and came in with 38, a total of 76, giving him a grand total of 151, the lowest score of the day.

Lockwood to Run
Former Penn Star Will Stage "Come-Back" on Cinder Path

Lockwood, who several years ago was one of the University of Pennsylvania's best sprinters, is to attempt a "come-back." Lockwood will represent the New York A. C. in open competition and will be eligible to compete for the Winged Foot in the coming senior metropolitan championships.

Yesterday Dean shot the first nine holes in 35, one under par. He came in with 41, a total of 76 for the first round, three strokes above Max Marston, whose 73 was the best score that had been made over the Huntingdon Valley course since it was changed. Dean's second was even better than his first. He went out in 37 and came in with 38, a total of 76, giving him a grand total of 151, the lowest score of the day.

Lockwood to Run
Former Penn Star Will Stage "Come-Back" on Cinder Path

Lockwood, who several years ago was one of the University of Pennsylvania's best sprinters, is to attempt a "come-back." Lockwood will represent the New York A. C. in open competition and will be eligible to compete for the Winged Foot in the coming senior metropolitan championships.

Yesterday Dean shot the first nine holes in 35, one under par. He came in with 41, a total of 76 for the first round, three strokes above Max Marston, whose 73 was the best score that had been made over the Huntingdon Valley course since it was changed. Dean's second was even better than his first. He went out in 37 and came in with 38, a total of 76, giving him a grand total of 151, the lowest score of the day.

Lockwood to Run
Former Penn Star Will Stage "Come-Back" on Cinder Path

Lockwood, who several years ago was one of the University of Pennsylvania's best sprinters, is to attempt a "come-back." Lockwood will represent the New York A. C. in open competition and will be eligible to compete for the Winged Foot in the coming senior metropolitan championships.

CARMAN OUT TO RUIN LAWRENCE'S STREAK

Former Champion Shakes Jinx and Rides in 40-Mile Race at Velodrome Tonight

BOBBY WALTHOUR PEDALS

Clarence Carman announced last night that he had a little surprise for the racing fans tonight. The former world's champion came to the front with his first victory of the year in Providence last Friday night, rode brilliantly in Boston Saturday night and expects to shatter the winning streak of Lawrence at the Velodrome tonight.

Percy Lawrence, the present champion, has won his last three starts at the Velodrome. His latest conquest was a victory over Vincent Madonna at the Velodrome last Saturday night in a special twenty-mile match race.

Carman will meet Madonna in a twenty-five-mile match race in Providence Friday night. He is also booked for Boston Saturday night. Tonight, however, Lawrence will have to face Carman, Bobby Walthour and George Chapman, the most recent motorpaced sensation in a forty-mile motorpaced race.

Much depends upon the pacemakers. If Carman happens to draw Jim Hunter his chances of winning are about ten to one. He has drawn Seibel in his three starts here and nothing but hard luck has followed him.

A special best-two-out-of-three-heat match sprint race has been arranged. Tom Bello, the Italian rider, will meet Willie Hanley, the coast product, in the sprint match.

Two amateur cycle races will precede the sprint match.

Walt Leads in Western Golf
St. Louis, June 17.—Clarence Walt of the Algonquin Club, St. Louis, led the group in the 18-hole qualification round at the western amateur golf championship at the Sunset Hill Country Club yesterday with a 34-30-73, one over par for the 72-stroke round.

Braves Obtain Tony Beckel
Cincinnati, June 17.—G. W. Grant, president of the Boston Braves, announced that his club has obtained Tony Beckel, from Pittsburgh, via the waiver route.

Service Club Honors Hoppe
New York, June 17.—Willie Hoppe was presented with silver loving cup at the Cardinal Farley Soldiers and Sailors' Club yesterday. The presentation was made by Joseph J. O'Donoghue, Jr., the chairman of the club, at a luncheon in honor of the billiard player.

Yale Plays Harvard Tomorrow
Cambridge, Mass., June 17.—Yale and Harvard will meet here in the first game of an annual football series tomorrow, and a record crowd is expected.

EL PRODUCTO

BLUNT
13c or
2 for 25c

Ensign Dave Jaffe won his second lot of the season. He "crashed" in when the Navy beat the Army at baseball and he won the price of his admission ticket from Marshall Reinberger when Dundee stayed the limit.

Jules Robbins, the one-time Penn athlete, was host to a box party. Among his guests were Dr. Lewis Weinberg, Mr. Albert Gartin, Herman Koppelman, Ben Lawrence, Lou Lewis and Ted Fox.

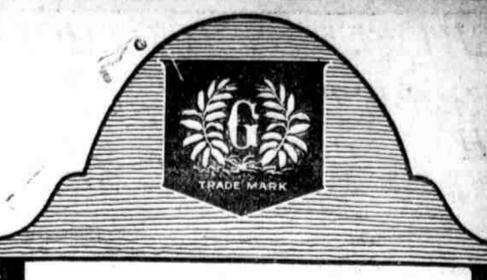

John Fulton assisted Walter Crall, the flashy photographer. Operator Crall operated from the top of a five-foot ladder. Fulton's duties were to guard the ladder.

William Scheider, Jake Gross and Dan Goss were the agents of Dr. G. W. Wittman. They were located in the right-field boxes.

Francis Maxwell and Dan Moran fought a second round in the lone preliminary. It was evident the bout was a pretentious, for Herman Hudis was seconding one of the boys.

Lockwood to Run
Former Penn Star Will Stage "Come-Back" on Cinder Path

Lockwood, who several years ago was one of the University of Pennsylvania's best sprinters, is to attempt a "come-back." Lockwood will represent the New York A. C. in open competition and will be eligible to compete for the Winged Foot in the coming senior metropolitan championships.

All High-score Tires

Hauling building material, the contractor's job, calls for the best in trucks and tires. Yet even in this excruciating service Goodrich De Luxe Truck Tires double and treble the adjustment mileages—as the records of the United Fuel & Supply Co., of Detroit, using 5-ton trucks, testify:

- Truck No. 1214—30,571 miles
Truck No. 1213—27,742 miles
Truck No. 1221—24,403 miles
Truck No. 1227—17,854 miles
Truck No. 1230—18,170 miles
Truck No. 1229—23,038 miles

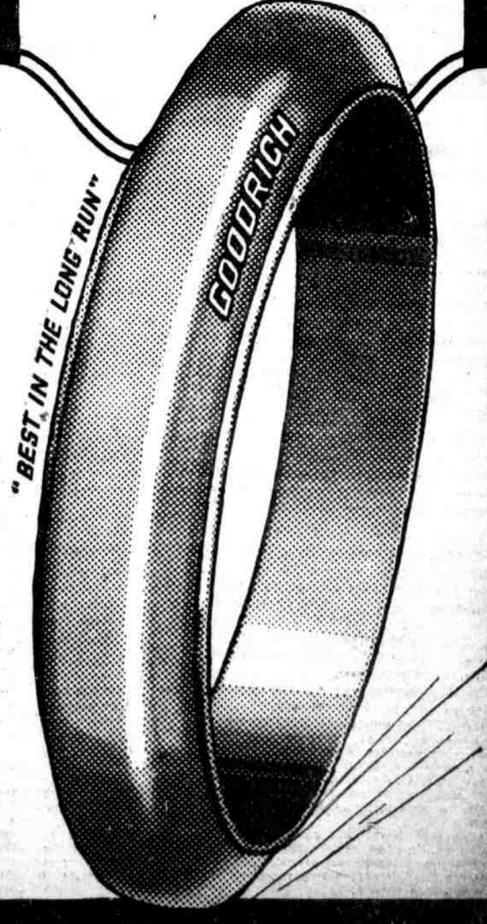

If your service is equally severe, lighter or heavier, think how these deep, durable treads, the product of a half-century of rubber experience, can cut your tire bills.

Mileage Adjustment: 10,000 Miles

We Sell and Apply De Luxe Tires

B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company
519 North Broad Street
Atlantic Tire and Rubber Company
1414 Mt. Vernon Street
Foss-Hughes Company
21st and Market Streets
Elmer Barber
1127 Land Title Building
Service Stations:
4232 Ludlow Street and
2516 East Cumberland Street

GOODRICH De Luxe TRUCK TIRES

"BEST IN THE LONG RUN"

Since one of the leading designers of Paris was brought to America five years ago to open our Custom Department, the lines of the Locomobile have been the favorite model of the copyist. The most expensive car in the world. Regular Models, $7350. THE LOCOMOBILE COMPANY 2314 Market Street

USE Starrett HACKSAW BLADES

They Cut Quicker and Last Longer

OUR CHART TELLS YOU which saw to use when cutting light angles, channels, tee irons, ornamental light and heavy structural; iron, brass and conduit pipe; solid steel, cold rolled, machine steel, tool steel, castiron, brass, sheet metal, etc.

Send for Our Chart or Have Our Expert Call
COLLIERIES SUPPLY AND EQUIPMENT COMPANY
14 N. Fifth St. Philadelphia, Pa.
Market 4280 Main 2300

SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER
3 for $10.50
Imported Madras
RUE-MER BERRY CO.
1111 N. CHERRY ST.
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

7c Invincible Per Box 50 Cigars $3.25